SUBJECT: YOUNG WOMEN'S HEALTH SUMMIT

This information bulletin transmits information from the Department of Labor, Region VI, regarding the Young Women's Health Summit.

The Office on Women's Health, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, is sponsoring a Young Women's Health Summit. The Summit will take place August 3-5, 2000, in Arlington, Virginia, and may be an excellent opportunity for young women in Welfare-to-Work Grant programs. The Summit will be sponsoring attendees from each state/territory in three age groups. Applications for sponsored attendance are due May 25, 2000. To learn more about the Summit, and to download applications for sponsored Summit attendance, visit the Summit Web site at:

<http://www.4woman.gov/nwhic/current/Calendar/YWHS/index.htm>

The goals of the Summit are to:

1. Bring together both young girls and older women to discuss the issues facing young girls/women.
2. Provide/disseminate/discuss health information that will promote healthy lifestyles.
3. Promote positive images of young women in the media and community.
4. Promote the development of leadership skills through the formation of mentoring relationships between young and older women.
5. Establish a network for interaction, information and community action for young girls/women.

If you have any questions about the summit, please contact Francess E. Page, RN, MPH; Senior Public Health Advisor; DHHS Office on Women's Health; 200 Independence Avenue, SW, Room 728E; Washington, D.C. 20201; telephone (202) 690-7650; fax (202) 401-4005.
